

Please do not interfere with the Indiana State law on telemarketing. It is working great and now I don't get interrupted everytime I sit down to dinner or in the middle of a tv show I am interested in. It has been so nice since the law has gone into effect that I never really realized how often and invasive they were before.

Please leave our state law and don't try to water it down.